Comments (including type of equipment and location, per C2(e), if applicable)  No machinery observed at time of survey. The above structure is located within Zone A, 1% chance of annual flooding, with no base flood elevations determined, it is suggested that the owner submit for a LOMA with FEMA to make an official determination and potentially remove this structure from within the limits of said Zone A. The top of the bottom floor, box C2a., is the lowest elevation of the dirt floor beneath the elevated floor above. The top of the next higher floor, box C2b., is the elevation of the elevated main floor as taken at the front entry door. No flood vents observed.  This expired form is still accepted by FEMA, as of this date a newer document has not been released
